

2003 EQIP – Marion County Ranking Sheet

Water Quality:

Yes or No Are acres for contract located in the surface well protection area? (State Concerns Map 1w)

Yes or No Are acres for contract located in 303d list because of nutrient rich sediment? (State Concerns Map 2w)

Yes or No Does acres for contract have less than ten feet of green living vegetative buffers along continuous flowing streams or rivers of water. Ponds, lakes, wetlands or reservoirs of water occurring natural or constructed by man greater than one-acre size?

Yes or No Are acres for contract located in an area of high ground water pollution vulnerability? State Concerns Map 3w

Yes or No Are acres for contract located in public surface water intakes? (State Concerns Map 1w)

Yes or No Are acres for contract utilized as cropland?

Erosion:

Yes or No Are acres for contract contain slopes greater than 4%?

Yes or No Would you practice conservation tillage on acres for contract?

Yes or No Does acres for contract have any HEL soils?

Yes or No Are the acres for contract within 200 feet to continuous flowing streams or rivers of water?

Yes or No Does the acres for contract contain any long cliff or steep slope separating two comparatively level or more gently sloping surfaces resulting from erosion or faulting found in Marion county soil survey as escarpments?

Yes or No Are the acres for contract located in Pike, Decatur, or Franklin townships?

Livestock:

Yes or No Are animals feed or watered within fifty feet to continuous flowing streams or rivers of water. Ponds, lakes, wetlands or reservoirs of water occurring natural or constructed by man greater than one acre in size.

Yes or No Are animals housed, penned, fenced, staged or corralled within 200 feet of continuous flowing streams or rivers of water. Ponds, lakes, wetlands, or reservoirs of water occurring natural or constructed by man greater than one acre in size.

Yes or No Are you operating without an IDEM manure management plan?

Forestry:

Yes or No Are acres for contract currently non-forested?

Yes or No Are acres for contract contain invasive and exotic species listed below, found in the “Invasive Plants in Indiana” or at www.inpaws.org web site?

Bush Honeysuckle (Lonicera maackii, L. tatarica, L. morrowii)

Japanese Honeysuckle (Lonicera japonica)

Tree of Heaven (Ailanthus altissima)

Garlic Mustard (Alliaria petiolata)

Purple Loosestrife (Lythrum salicaria)

Autumn Olive (Elaeagnus umbellata)

Multiflora Rose (Rosa multiflora)

Yes or No Will the acres for contract expand on existing forest areas or protected natural areas? (Federal, state, city, or county parks, forest, wetlands or grasslands)

Yes or No Are acres for contract within 500 feet of continuous flowing streams or rivers of water. Ponds, lakes, wetlands, or reservoirs of water occurring natural or constructed by man greater than one acre in size.

Yes or No Does acres for contract forested land have a written forest management plan?

Yes or No Has the acres for contract been harvested or planned to be harvested with in the three years?